

Johnson to Confer With McNamara

By FRANK CORMIER
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson wrestles again with Viet Nam war costs today and awards the Medal of Honor to a three-wounded Marine who killed at least eight Viet Cong in a rice paddy fire fight.

Flying to the Texas capital for the medal presentation and discussion of defense spending were Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Sgt. Robert Emmett O'Malley, 23, of Woodside, N.Y., is the first Marine to earn the Medal of Honor in Viet Nam. He is cited for gallantry near Chu Lai during Operation Starlight Aug. 18, 1965.

O'Malley, who has been living with his parents since recuperating from wounds of that engagement, was put back on active duty just for today — so he could wear dress blues for the medal award ceremony at the Austin post office.

Johnson was going from there to his office suite in the neighboring federal building to confer with McNamara and the joint chiefs.

Targeted for discussion were the new defense budget that will go to Congress in January and supplemental funds — perhaps as much as $15 billion — to be sought for Viet Nam expenses during the current budget year.

No major budgetary decisions were expected to be announced today. McNamara has indicated the Pentagon probably won't reach any conclusions of its own for several weeks, after which Johnson must give any stamp of final approval.

His citation reads in part:

Forecasts
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ARKANSAS — Mostly cloudy through Wednesday with widely scattered showers and a chance of thundershowers ending from the northwest Wednesday. Turning a little cooler northwest Wednesday, otherwise continued mild. Low tonight upper 50s north and 60s elsewhere. High Wednesday 50s northwest and low 70s southeast.

LOUISIANA — Partly cloudy and warm through Wednesday with a few showers. Low tonight 60 to 66. High Wednesday 74 to 82.

"O'Malley raced across an open rice paddy to a trench line where the enemy forces were located. Jumping into the trench, he attacked the Viet Cong with his rifle and grenades, and singly killed eight of the enemy.

"He then led his squad to the assistance of an adjacent Marine unit which was suffering heavy casualties. Continuing to press forward, he reloaded his weapon and fired with telling effect into the enemy emplacement.

"Ordered to an evacuation point by an officer, Cpl. O'Malley gathered his besieged and badly wounded squad and boldly led them under fire to a helicopter for withdrawal.

"Although three times wounded in this encounter, and facing imminent death from a fanatic and determined enemy, he steadfastly refused evacuation and continued to cover his squad's boarding of the helicopter while, from an exposed position, he delivered fire against the enemy until his wounded men were evacuated.

"Only then, with his last mission accomplished, did he permit himself to be removed from the battlefield."

RCA A BIG ANGEL
NEW YORK (AP) — Affiliates of the Radio Corporation of America are increasing their patronage of Broadway productions.

The RCA Victor Division earlier this year allotted $1.5 million to David Merrick for across-the-board financing of ventures. Now NBC has put $100,000 into "Walking Happy" and announces the intention of more show backings.

As part of its deal, the recording unit gets first call on making original cast albums, but the NBC transaction establishes no priorities for either television or record rights.

Peace Feelers Are Very Perishable

By SPENCER DAVIS
WASHINGTON (AP) — About the most perishable commodity in the diplomatic world today is a Viet Nam peace feeler.

The State Department says that since 1964 there have been 26 major ones initiated or supported by the United States. It says these efforts are continuing.

But no sooner is one launched in the corridors of the United Nations—or over a vodka martini at a diplomatic reception in Washington or Moscow—or reported in a whispered conversation in New Delhi, Belgrade or Algiers — than it is exploded with a massive denial.

"One has sometimes heard of peace feelers," Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a Canadian interviewer at the start of the 37-day pause in U.S. bombings in Viet Nam last Christmas.

"Actually these have arisen on the initiative of someone else. I don't know of any initiatives taken by Hanoi to seek peace," he said.

"Others — third parties, other governments, perhaps private citizens — have had conversations with Hanoi, and when some of these are made public these are translated into something called peace feelers by Hanoi.

"Hanoi has denied that they have made any peace feelers," Rusk said.

One year later the same situation still prevails, but if anything there are more peace probes and more denials than ever.

"Thus far all initiatives have failed due to the refusal by the Communist side to enter into discussions," according to Assistant Secretary of State Dixon Donnelly.

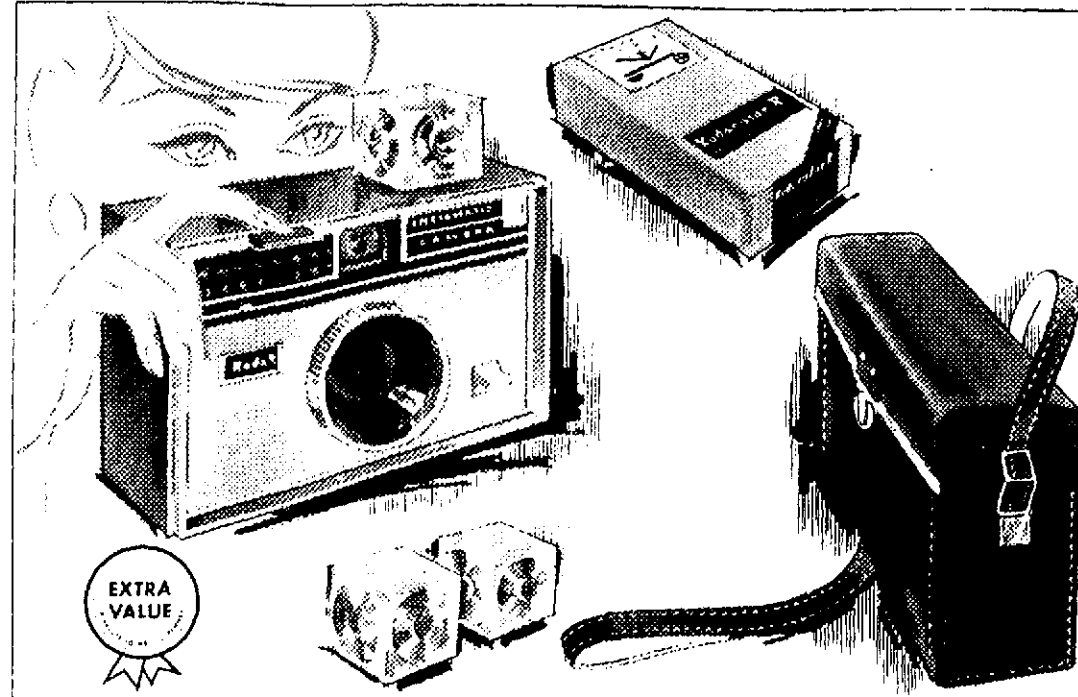

An opposite view is held by former presidential adviser and Harvard historian Arthur Schlesinger Jr. He said last summer "the diplomatic record is a good deal more complicated than our highest government officials have led us to believe — that the other side, far from rebuffing a series of 'unconditional' American overtures, has from time to time, despite the pressure to continue the war emanating from Peking, betrayed flickers of interest in a political settlement."

Schlesinger asserted that "a vigorous and imaginative American diplomacy would have exploited this, if only to establish our goodwill before the world."

Cpl. and Mrs. Roger D. McLelland

The wedding of Miss Cynthia Ann Collier and Cpl. Roger D. McLelland was solemnized at 8 p.m. Friday, November 18 in the sanctuary of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collier, Jr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McLelland.

The Rev. Clyde Johnson performed the double-ring ceremony in a setting of white stocks, greenery, and burning white candles. Mrs. Wade Warren, organist, played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Sandra Stone of Marshfield, Mo., cousin of the bride, when she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Entering upon the arm of her father, the bride wore a traditional white satin wedding gown trimmed with appliqued flowers around the neckline and at the hem of the skirt. Long, tapered sleeves ended in lily points on the hands, and the bridal train fell from a bow at the waist. Her headpiece was trimmed with pearls and came to a point on her forehead, and to it was attached her veil of illusion. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Martha McLelland, sister of the bridegroom, served the bride as maid of honor. She was attired in a street-length dress of pale pink and carried a single, long-stemmed pink rose. The bridesmaids, Misses Sara Gordon and Brenda Gammill, wore pink in a deeper tone than that of the honor attendant. They

Eavesdropping to Get Another Court Look

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court said today it will examine a New York law permitting electronic eavesdropping under court order.

The court said in a brief order it will decide if the legislation is constitutional. It will do so in giving a hearing to Ralph Berger, a Chicago public relations man convicted of conspiring to bribe Martin C. Epstein, then chairman of the New York State Liquor Authority.

Berger was convicted on two counts, one involving an alleged bribe in connection with a Play-boy Club liquor license application in New York City, the other involving an asserted bribe in connection with a liquor license for a place called the Tenement Club, in the same city.

Berger was convicted after a four-week trial and on Dec. 17, 1964, he was sentenced to one year in prison and fined $5,000.

Berger's appeal to the Supreme Court questioned, among other things, if the New York code of criminal procedure which allows electronic eavesdropping under court order violates the federal Constitution. The court said it will grant review limited to two questions: 1. Whether the eavesdropping in the Berger case was based upon "an adequate showing of probable cause."

Conviction of Murder Affirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court affirmed today the second-degree murder conviction and 21-year prison sentence of Johnnie Gilchrist of Little Rock in the shooting of his brother Aug. 21, 1965.

The court denied Gilchrist's contention that Pulaski County Circuit Court Judge William J. Kirby erred in refusing to charge the jury trying Gilchrist on the lesser offense of manslaughter.

Gilchrist, who was tried on a first-degree murder charge, testified in his trial that he fired two shots at his brother, Walter Gilchrist, in the back yard of their sister's home. He said he shot to protect himself from his brother, whom Gilchrist testified had a gun at the time. The Supreme Court said the record, however, did not reflect any circumstances surrounding the shooting that would require an instruction of voluntary manslaughter.

The court also affirmed the second-degree murder conviction and 15-year prison sentence of Deola Fisher Sr. for the shooting last year of Peter Collier outside a Benton cafe.

In another case, the court reversed a jury verdict and ordered the Pope County Circuit Court to determine the negligence in a traffic accident. The jury had directed a verdict in favor of Mrs. C. L. Matthews, driver of a car that collided with a motor scooter driven by the appellant, Wiley Lee Baker, who was 15 when the accident occurred in March 1964.

Two Porkers to Play in Shrine Game

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — UCLA's Mel Farr, Idaho's Ray McDonald and Oregon State's Pete Pifer, who scored a total of 35 touchdowns during 1966, will provide running power for the West in the 42nd East-West football game, Dec. 31.

Roster of the West squad for the Shrine charity clash in Kezar Stadium was announced today by Managing Director Bert Jacobs.

UCLA's Farr ran for 805 yards and nine touchdowns. McDonald, a giant at 6-foot-4 and 248, led the nation in rushing with 1,329 yards and scored 14 touchdowns. Pifer became the first player in Pacific-8 annals to rush more than 1,000 in consecutive seasons when he reached 1,088. The 230-pounder scored 12 touchdowns.

In addition to those three, the West has Charlie Brown of Missouri who led the Big Eight in rushing as a junior in 1965.

Selected at quarterback were Little All America Don Horn, below Dardanelle Dam by Amos from undefeated San Diego State who hit for 2,234 yards and 18 touchdowns, and Tim Van Calder of Iowa State who had a three-year passing total of 3,451.

Stanford's Dave Lewis provides all around help and will do the punting. He played regularly at quarterback in his junior year and at halfback as a senior until pressed back into signal calling duties for the final games.

Along the offensive line the West has center Tim Sheehan of Stanford, guards Jim Wilkin, Oregon State, and Ronnie Pack, Texas Tech, and tackles Dick Cunningham, Arkansas and Jim Riley of Oklahoma.

Washington's Dave Williams and Stanford's John Mason are the ends, with Cal's 155-pound Jerry Bradley available either at end or flanker.

Defensively, the line has Washington's Tom Greenlee and Lloyd Phillips of Arkansas at ends, Leo Carroll of San Diego State and Dennis Randall of Oklahoma State at tackles and John Richardson of UCLA at middle guard. Carroll weighs 255, and Richardson 254 as the big men of the crew.

George Harvey of Kansas, Ron McCall of Weber State are the linebackers with Bob Grim of Oregon State, Charles Latourrette, Rice, Lloyd Duncan, Air Force and Frank Horak, Texas Christian, in the secondary.

John Ralston of Stanford, Ben Martin of the Air Force and J. T. King of Texas Tech coach the West squad which will train at Stanford University after reporting in San Francisco on Dec. 21.

Second Deer Season Opens Next Week

LITTLE ROCK, — The Game and Fish Commission decided during its recent meeting in Harrison that a 3 day deer hunt would be held Dec. 29-31. Previously only two hunts had been announced.

"The Commission always has the interest of the hunter at heart," said G&F Director Hugh Hackler, "and the opening of the third deer season is a good example that bears this out."

Hackler said legal bucks only may be killed, with regulations governing the third hunt being the same as for the other two deer periods.

The second deer period will begin Dec. 12 and continue through Dec. 17, for legal bucks only.

Illinois Licks Highly Rated Kentucky

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The shrill tones of high pitched whistles cut through the din at Kentucky's field house and left Coach Adolph Rupp with his fingers in his ears.

"I never saw anything like it in my life," said Rupp, after four Wildcats had fouled out and Illinois had defeated thriranked Kentucky 98-97 in overtime Monday night.

Rupp, who is 65 and has seen plenty in his 37 years at Kentucky, watched Pat Riley pick up three personal fouls inside of 32 seconds of the first half and finally foul out with almost 12 minutes left to play.

"I was almost getting disgusted with the refereeing," The Baron told newsmen after the game. "In the scrambles, we got all the fouls."

Kentucky never led and Ron Dunlap dropped in the two free throws with 2:15 left in the overtime that put Illinois on top to stay.

Rich Jones led Illinois with 32 points and Dave Flessner had 23. All America Louie Dampier hit 40 for the Wildcats. Thad Jaracz scored 22 and Riley had 15 before fouling out.

In another major upset, Michigan topped seventh-ranked Houston 86-75 at Ann Arbor.

A year ago it would have been an upset if the Wolverines hadn't taken Houston but that was when Cazzie Russell was still around. Russell has graduated and it looked like a long season when Michigan dropped its first two games. But against a much taller Houston club, Michigan got 23 points from Dennis Stewart, a sophomore, and won going away.

"It's fun to win one," said Coach Dave Strack, who had plenty of practice in the Russell years. "This has got to make them think that they can play with a lot of ball clubs."

In other major games, Michigan State ripped South Dakota 81-54, Indiana defeated Missouri 77-65, Iowa State routed Minnesota 87-69, Alabama topped Louisiana Tech 84-73, Purdue slipped past Ohio University 74-71 and Kansas mauled Ohio State 94-70.

Also, Vanderbilt thumped Southwestern Louisiana 101-68, Creighton nipped Iowa 69-68, Northwestern hammered Ball State 120-83 and Florida State downed Rice 76-72.

Elsewhere, it was Oklahoma State 72, South Dakota State 69; Memphis State 66, Texas A&M 56; Mississippi 82, Texas 80; William and Mary 72, Pittsburgh 68; and California 108, Oklahoma 81.

The officials called 30 fouls against Kentucky and 19 on Illinois. The Wildcats scored four more field goals than the Illinois but nine fewer free throws. The defeat broke a 19-game home court winning streak for Kentucky.

Houston outrebounded Michigan 40-49 but failed repeatedly to convert second and third tap-ins. Elvin Hayes led the Cougars with 25 points but was called for goaltending six times.

Unbeaten Michigan State bottled up South Dakota's attack and jumped off to an early lead en route to its third straight victory. Steve Rydal led the winners with 17 points while Lee Lafayette and Matthew Aitch had 15 apiece.

Butch Joyner scored 22 points and Vernon Payne added 21 as Indiana whipped Missouri, Ron Coleman led the losers with 16. Vanderbilt hit 82 per cent from the floor in the first seven minutes and romped past Southwestern Louisiana. Bo Wyendank sank seven straight field goals during the streak and wound up with 21 points, leading five men in double figures.

Steve Jansa's three-point play opened a five-point lead for Creighton in the final 12 minutes against Iowa. Sam Williams of the losers led all scorers with 29 points.

Redlegs Sold to Cincinnati Businessmen

By JAAN KANGILASKI
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — William Orville DeWitt, the only general manager ever to have had pennant winners in both major leagues, has bowed out as owner-president of the Cincinnati Reds in favor of a group of local investors.

Francis L. Dale, publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer, announced Monday night his group has bought all the baseball team's stock for $7 million and will sign a 40-year lease with the city to help Cincinnati build a new riverfront stadium.

DeWitt, a baseball veteran who four years ago bought the Reds for a reported $4.6 million, will continue running the club until the deal is approved by the National League, probably some time in January. Manager Dave Bristol and the Reds' front office staff also will continue in their jobs.

The new manager will have a "pretty free hand," Dale said. "Our interest is to keep the Reds in Cincinnati and make sure that city gets the new riverfront stadium," Dale said. The $43-million stadium would serve as home for both the Reds and a professional football team the city hopes to get, but at present the financing is still unsettled.

Most Reds fans welcomed the change of ownership. The Reds won a pennant in their first year under DeWitt, but the portly executive's popularity plunged this year.

The Reds ended up on the short end of an off-season trade that sent slugging star Frank Robinson to Baltimore in return for pitchers Milt Pappas and Jack Baldschun and rookie outfielder Dick Simpson. None of them helped the Reds much and the team wound up in seventh place while Robinson won the American League batting crown and led the Orioles to a world championship.

DeWitt had come to Cincinnati as general manager on Nov. 2, 1960. He took over the club's operations after Industrialist-owner Powell Crosley Jr.'s death in March 1961. On April 5, 1962, DeWitt bought the Reds from a charitable trust set up under the Industrialist's will.

Negro Five Eliminates Hope Team

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Bobcats were eliminated from the Ouachita Baptist University Tournament in a first round defeat last night at the hands of the talented Lincoln Tigers by the deceiving score of 83-61. At the half it was only 38-33.

The Cats will be in action again tonight at Jones Field House when they meet the Gurdon Go-Devils following the senior girls game which begins at 6:30.

Lincoln, an all Negro high school in Camden became the first all-colored school to compete with the Bobcats in any sports event in the school's history.

Even though the final score may suggest a one-sided game, the overall contest was quite the contrary. In fact for over three full quarters of play it was nip and tuck all the way.

A fourth quarter scoring surge by the Tigers allowed them to push the score out of the Cats' reach but the game wasn't settled until the last three minutes of play.

The Bobcats who are still performing with out the leadership and rebounding of senior letterman Stan Parrish, were unable to consistently clear the boards. The rebounding was definitely the biggest asset for the Lincoln High boys who averaged over six feet per man for all of their ten-man traveling squad.

Irish Take It All in Stride

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Coach Ara Parseghian and the student body took the fact that Notre Dame was named the nation's national collegiate football champions in stride Monday night.

The student body had little chance to demonstrate. "I guess the students were studying and not listening to their radios," said a campus spokesman. "They'll know all about it Tuesday when the Chicago morning papers hit the campus."

"But, let's face it. They expected to be No. 1." Parseghian, who was informed of the vote before leaving for Chicago and the annual Knute Rockne Memorial Awards Dinner, said he was "absolutely delighted."

In the preseason poll, Notre Dame was ranked sixth with Michigan State No. 1. The Irish kept edging up in the first four weeks with victories over Purdue, Northwestern and Army.

When Notre Dame hammered North Carolina 32-0 while Michigan State was struggling to an 11-3 victory over Ohio State, the Irish took the top rung and remained there although Notre Dame and Michigan State played to a 10-10 tie late in the campaign.

Notre Dame had an opportunity to gamble for a last ditch victory against Michigan State but the Irish elected to run out the clock.

The move became a controversial high point of the season but Parseghian, his forces depleted by injuries, said his men had played great football for 59½ minutes and he wasn't going to gamble and lose in the final seconds of the game.

The Irish eliminated all doubt of their No. 1 status when they clobbered Rose Bowl bound Southern California 51-0 in the final game of the season. Notre Dame finished up in the final poll with 41 first place votes and 506 points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis.

Michigan State with eight first place votes was second with 471 points followed by Alabama, the only undefeated, untied team in the nation, with seven first place votes and 428 points.

Georgia finished fourth with 332 points followed by UCLA with 291, Nebraska with 224, Purdue 193, Georgia Tech 165, Miami, Fla., 76 and Southern Methodist 62.

Last weekend Spring Hill Senior boys downed Willisville 44 to 23 while the Senior girls won handily too by a 61 to 34 score.

In the girls game Betty McNeill scored 31 points. In the boys contest J. Cowart was high with 9 points.

Yerger Plays Magnolia Teams Tonight

By JOSEPH WITHERSPOON

The Yerger High School Tigers will play host to Walker High School of Magnolia tonight. The game will begin at 7:30, when the Yerger Junior boys and senior boys play the junior and senior boys of Magnolia.

After losing both games in the tournament Saturday, the Junior boys losing to Ashdown 54-27 and the Senior boys were defeated in the fourth quarter by Arkadelphia 59-48. Both Yerger with identical records of 0-1, think that the defeats last week were due to the inexperience of the young players. A win for the tigers against Magnolia tonight would even their conference performance record up to 1-1. A victory for the Tigers could give them the confidence that they need to win more games.

When we go to a basketball game, some of us just give credit to the man who hits the most points. Whether this is good or bad, I cannot say. I can only say that credit should also be given to the other men contributing to the making of the basket. If somebody hadn't got the rebound, passed the ball to the right man at the right time, he could never have made the points. We have many players on the Tiger squad who never make very many points, but this does not mean they aren't doing very good jobs. Two of such men are Frank Prater on the junior team and Ernest Standokes for the senior boys. They are two of the trickiest and most proficient play-makers in the conference. They, along with many other fellows on the Tigers team, seldom, if ever, take a shot at the basket. They only take shots when necessary because their job on the team is to get the ball to the right place at the right time. So, when we go to the game, let's not watch to see who makes the points but also to see who passed the ball and who got the rebound. In short, watch the "whole team's effort."

UCLA Rated Top Team in Nation

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor's sensational debut as a college pivotman has given powerful UCLA an early stranglehold in The Associated Press basketball ratings.

The Bruins, who drubbed Southern California 105-90 in their season opener behind a 56-point spree by 7-foot-1 soph Alcindor, top The AP's national poll by an overwhelming margin.

A somewhat shaky leader in last week's pre-season poll, UCLA drew 32 of 34 first-place votes in this week's ballot of sports writers and broadcasters. The Bruins, who led runnerup Texas Western by 20 points a week ago, hold a 337-288 point bulge today over the defending NCAA champions.

Texas Western romped to two victories last week and retained its second-place edge over Kentucky, which opened with a 104-84 triumph over Virginia. The Miners drew one of the remaining first-place votes while fourth-ranked Louisville received the other.

Louisville, a 99-81 winner over Georgetown in its opener, moved up one notch from fifth, replacing Duke.

LITTLE ROCK Central, last year's Class AAA champion, climbed to the top today in The Associated Press Arkansas high school basketball poll, nudging North Little Rock by a point.

The Tigers and Wildcats each got five first place votes from a panel of 12 sports writers and broadcasters, but Central had 110 points to 109 for North Little Rock.

The difference game in second place votes where Central got five and the Wildcats four. Meanwhile Fort Smith Northside, the pre-season poll leader, tumbled to fifth place after losing to the Tigers and Wildcats last week.

Leachville ranked third and Blytheville, getting the other two votes for the top spot, was fourth.

Trailing Northside in order were Harrison, Jonesboro, Whitehall, El Dorado and Little Rock Hall.

Results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses and total points at right:

1. LR Central (5) 110
2. North LR (5) 109

Weather Held Down Deer Kill

LITTLE ROCK — If you didn't get your buck during the November deer period that just closed blame the weatherman.

Hunting conditions were poor, hot, dry, and windy. Too dry for hunters using dogs, too windy times for still hunters, and too warm for both types of hunters.

This same general weather pattern prevailed during a initial deer period last year, and the over-all deer kill is expected to be slightly above last year's total.

The unofficial deer kill for last week's hunt just past, stands at 12,524.

Pilkinton Receives An Apology

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Governor-elect Winthrop Rockefeller apologized by telegram Monday to James Pilkinton if remarks he made in a speech Saturday were taken as being directed at Pilkinton.

An aide to Rockefeller said the governor-elect sent Pilkinton a brief telegram that said: "I am sorry if my recent comments were in any way wrongly interpreted as referring to you."

Rockefeller told the Arkansas Associated Press Association Saturday that the state Senate's new Committee on Committees came into being "as a protective measure after rumors circulated that some individual in the lieutenant governor's race was reportedly going to sell committee appointments."

Pilkinton, a Democrat who lost to Republican Maurice Britt in the lieutenant governor's race in the general election, said Monday that he was certain Rockefeller was not referring to him but that some persons were interpreting it that way.

Rockefeller said Saturday that the candidate was not Britt.

political liberties for students. At the crowded Academic Senate meeting, Heyn's vote of confidence was included in a resolution that said in part:

"In view of the complexity of recent events, we urge the chancellor not to institute university disciplinary proceedings against students or student organizations (from last Wednesday to the present)."

"We call for creation of a faculty-student commission to consider new modes of governance and self-regulation" and that "the concerns and grievances expressed by so many of our students should be given serious consideration in formation and deliberation of the commission."

The resolution said also: "We join the chancellor (in saying) that the use of external police force, except in extreme emergency and of mass coercion, is inappropriate to the function of a university."

Heyn has said he approved of the call for police last Wednesday, although use of such force "runs counter to academic traditions" and "should be used only as a last resort."

In Sacramento, Gov.-elect Ronald Reagan told a news conference that he didn't believe the university administration should negotiate with the students. Reagan has stated he favored expelling striking students.

Heyn says he will not ask for courtroom amnesty for those arrested, and the district attorney's office has indicated all of them would be prosecuted, Savio was among those arrested.

Alternative to Draft-- Volunteers

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
CHICAGO (AP) — A national draft conference, its discussion of the workings of the Selective Service System behind it, turns today to an alternative: an all-volunteer standing army.

Two economists agree the nation can well afford one. Prof. Milton Friedman of the University of Chicago and Walter Y. Oi of the University of Washington argued in papers presented to the conference that the social and economic costs of the draft now pose far greater costs to the country than would a voluntary army.

Their views are expected to be sharply challenged by other delegates to the conference at the University of Chicago.

The Friedman-Oi papers led off the third day of the four-day meeting.

More than 100 scholars, government specialists and students are attending the meeting — seeking ways to avoid alleged inequities in the present system to which attention has been drawn by the growing demands of the Viet Nam war.

Friedman, who served as Barry Goldwater's economic adviser during the 1964 presidential campaign, said having a voluntary army would:

— Produce a lower turnover in the armed services and permit more intensive training.

— Preserve the freedom of individuals to serve or not to serve and, at the same time, prevent hasty marriages.

— Permit colleges and universities to pursue their proper educational function, freed alike from the incubus of the half-million or more young men who would be better off at work than in school."

Oi, who did much of his research while working as a consultant to the Defense Department, computed that a voluntary force of 2.7 million men would cost an added $4 billion yearly — a total he describes as "entirely feasible."

Even if the number in the armed services climbed to 3.3 million — roughly the total now on active duty — "the full economic cost of the draft would climb as rapidly as the cost of the voluntary force," Oi said.

The conferees seemed badly split on the question of whether the draft systems should continue deferments.

Some argued universities had no right to aid the draft boards by supplying class ranking.

Others pointed out that if this happened, all students would then take 4 armed services qualification test and boost its average score — inevitable discriminating against pupils in segregated and less competent schools.

Still others said none of this was valid anyway because test scores have nothing to do with performance.

Officials acknowledge that most of the conference ideas are not new, but they say that merely by holding a closed debate — the public is not allowed to the sessions — some new compromise ideas may emerge that could resolve the overall draft question.

WALTER REUTHER, president of the United Auto Workers Union, has called for Congress to investigate automobile price increases. Reuther has called the increases "scandalous" and "indefensible from any economic and moral sense of view."

WORLD ALMANAC
FACTS

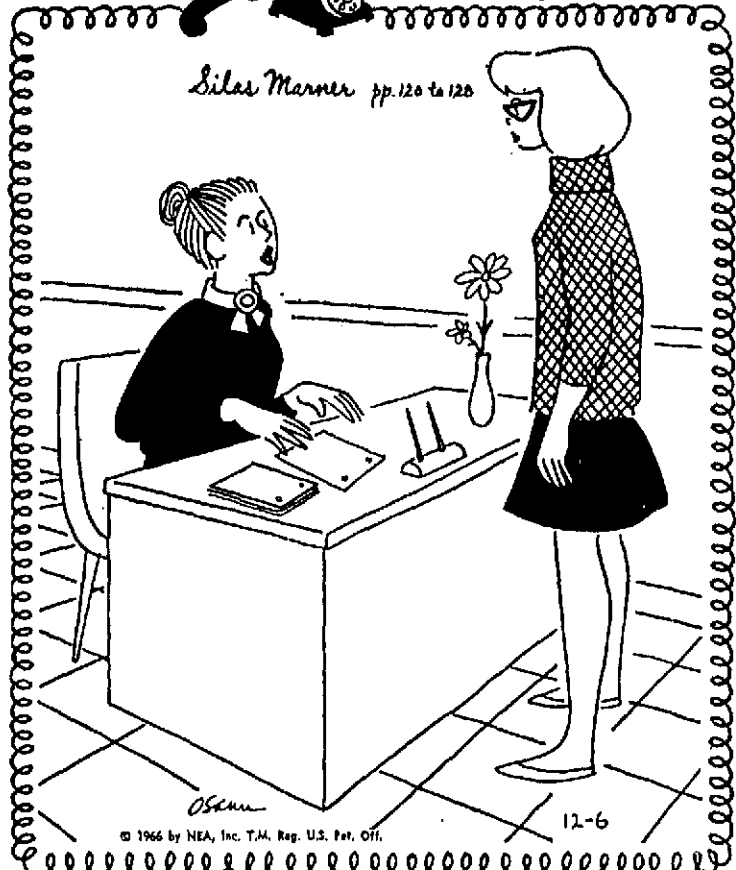

A small box containing a withered ear once helped cause a war, according to The World Almanac. In 1739, Capt. Jenkins testified before the British House of Commons that the box held his ear, which he said the Spanish had cut off while he was their prisoner. To a sensitive Parliament, the incident was the final indignity suffered at the hands of the Spanish. So, with banners flying and bells ringing, England plunged into the War of Jenkins' Ear.

WIN AT BRIDGE

One of the points discussed by Albert Morehead in "Morehead on Bidding" is the difference between suits. When each side has approximately the same high card strength and all hands are balanced the chances are that either side can make two odd in its best suit. When the hands are more unbalanced it is likely that each side can make game or even slam in their best suit.

In all these situations the side with the spades has a tremendous advantage. South has a good spade bid, and North a normal raise to two spades. The spade raise improves South's hand to the extent that he can afford to jump to game. In spite of the fact that North and South only have 18 high card points between them game is easy. South loses one trick each in spades, diamonds and clubs. Holding 22 high card points divided evenly, East and West can make four hearts just as easily. They have to lose to three aces but that is all. Give them the spades and give North and South the hearts and West would be able to overall at the one level. As it was, it was too dangerous for West to bid two hearts and North and South bid game without interference.

This hand was played in a duplicate game. One East player stuck his neck out a mile and bid three clubs over North's two spades. This did not stop South from becoming declarer at four spades but West opened the king of clubs. South won that trick and knocked out the ace of trumps but East cashed a high club and continued the suit. West was able to make a trick with the jack of trumps and this East-West pair secured the only plus score of the table.

Construction of the project was started in 1961 and completed in 1966 at an estimated cost of $43,077,000. It will serve the purposes of flood control, water supply, recreation, and fish and wildlife. The project is operated and supervised by Corps of Engineers personnel under direction of the District Engineer in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

ECONOMIC VALUE

Anticipated average annual flood control benefits by operating the Millwood Reservoir, computed at 1966 prices, are $1,626,000. Water supply benefits are estimated to be $520,000 per year.

Utilization of reservoir land and water areas will result in many benefits other than flood control and water supply. These include, but are not limited to, public use, agriculture, forestry, and fish and wildlife conservation. The benefit-cost ratio of the project is 1.6—that is a return of $1.60 on every $1.00 invested.

RECREATION

Under initial operations, the reservoir will cover an area of 24,500 acres and will have a shoreline of about 65 miles. Ultimately, the full water supply pool will form a lake of 29,200 acres.

The tributary streams within the reservoir area are the Rolling Fork, Cossatot, and Saline rivers; there are also many cut-off sloughs. Sportsmen will find a wide variety of fish.

Thousands of persons who live within easy driving distance of Millwood Reservoir will take advantage of the recreational opportunities it offers. Approximately 163,000 persons live within the 50-mile zone of influence of Millwood Reservoir. Twenty-five cities of over 500 population are within a 50-mile radius.

More Effort in Viet Nam Is Sentiment

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A cross-section check by The Associated Press showed today that sentiment runs strongly among newly elected members of the House of Representatives for greater military efforts in Viet Nam if present policies fail to improve the war situation.

The newcomers — mostly Republicans — also favor cuts in spending and see no need for new civil rights legislation now.

The AP poll of 35 first-term House members elected Nov. 8 shows that 20 Republicans and 5 Democrats favor additional use of U.S. military might to bring the Viet Nam war to an end if present tactics fail.

Four freshmen oppose expansion of the war and six take no public stand.

While many of those questioned said they would vote for a tax increase if needed because of war costs, all but three said they want first to try cutting spending.

Twenty-four first-termers, including five Democrats, said they don't believe new civil rights legislation is needed at this time. Five called for further congressional action and six declined specific comment.

There has been much speculation on the impact of the election in which Republicans gained 47 House seats.

While they can have no formal voice in determining President Johnson's course in Viet Nam, the sharp increase in "hawks" among House members might increase difficulties of the President in keeping the conflict limited in scope.

The "Great Society" programs apparently have lost what may be marginal support with the substantial increase in those who say they are determined to reduce federal spending.

On the basis of the canvass, a civil rights bill which included an antihousing discrimination clause not only would face a probable Senate filibuster but would have extremely difficult going in the House.

PEERING under the pier in Naples, Fla., might have won a glimpse of this lovely miss recently, who found temporary seclusion from sun, surfboards and water skis.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

TRY, TRY AGAIN

Dear Helen: I am a male, a junior in high school, and very setback and shy with girls. I have only been on one real date, and this was the result of about a year's saved-up nerve to ask out this girl.

I was going to take her to a dance. The night was a total flop from beginning to end. First I couldn't find the place where the dance was and we got there real late. Afterwards I stopped at an "Open All Night" restaurant which, of course, was closed. To top this off I had a flat tire, and by that time I felt like crawling into a hole and dying.

Although I know the girl probably never wants to see me again, is there any way that I could possibly ask her to go out with me once more? Maybe I could redeem myself. I really like her a lot. — GIRL SHY
Dear Shy: My I.G.A.P. (I'm guessing again perception) says your girl is wondering right now, "What did I do wrong?" "Why doesn't he call?"

When both suffer from the "What ifs," — "What-if he or she doesn't like me?" — neither wants to make the first move for fear of being rejected. So there's no second date, and a budding two some ends up bloomin' lonesome.

Make haste to the telephone, chum! — H.

Dear Helen: An article in your column shocked me into some sense. I am a 16-year-old girl and, like the girl described by "Mrs. Nobody," I have been flattered an older married man who has shown interest in me.

Whether or not I am the girl referred to by Mrs. N, I would like her to know one thing:

Neither I nor any other young teen has any intentions of wrecking an obviously happy home. But as you said, Helen, I guess I was trying out my sex appeal on a "safe subject."

If it will make Mrs. N. feel any better, I've decided, after reading your answer, to practice on guys my own age! — LITTLE MISS NOBODY

Dear Miss N.: You are't Mrs. Nobody's teen, but I certainly hope the real Junior Siren follows your example! — H.

NO TIME FOR FRANKNESS

Dear Helen: How does a girl tell the party she is baby sitting for to clean her house and kids before going out? I don't mind taking care of children but a dirty house gets me down, and this house is constantly messy. — DISCOURAGED SITTER

Dear D. S.: I know a girl who solved this problem neatly and earned herself some extra coins in the bargain. She made up in the bargain. She made up business cards which listed her general house work or ironing while on duty; gardening, etc. hour for ewch, but specified "baby sitting" included "pick-up jobs and leaving the house as neat as she found it."

She discovered many women

Telephone rate cut slated

Telephone users served by Southwestern Bell-Arkansas can make night and weekend station-to-station long distance calls at lower charges than ever before starting early Saturday, May 1, when new reduced rates go into effect.

The popular "night rate" calling plan has been moved up one hour, to 8 p.m., meaning three-minute, station-to-station calls to any other Arkansas telephone can be made between 8 p.m. and 4:30 a.m. each night, or all day Sunday, for a charge of 50¢ or even less. The headlines tell the story...

Telephone service in Arkansas is a bigger bargain than ever before

During the last 20 months, there have been three major statewide reductions in long distance calling rates for Arkansas telephone users.

What's more, charges for color telephones and Princess' telephones were also slashed during this period.

At the same time, most mileage charges outside the city service areas were reduced and, in many cases, the cost of connecting and moving telephones was lowered.

The headlines tell the story — and it's a mighty good one for telephone users in Arkansas.

Millwood Dam Dedication Thursday, December 8

Millwood Dam Dedication Good Omen for Our Area

Five years in building, the 43-million-dollar Millwood Dam and Reservoir on Little River will be dedicated with ceremonies at the dam site beginning at 2 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 8. Today's Star carries the dam's picture, a map on how to reach the dedication site, and the program.

Except for the coming of the old Cairo & Fulton Railway, now the Missouri Pacific, which created our town in 1873, Millwood carries the greatest potential economic impact in the history of southwest Arkansas.

Although merely the latest of long series of federal dams and reservoirs all over America, Millwood does have a special significance. Other dams have been built for single or multiple purposes — for flood control, electric power, or recreation — but Millwood represents a unique trade between Louisiana and Arkansas. The downstream folks got flood control, while we got reserve water supplies for the dry months.

This was overlooked in the original plans, which had set up Millwood for merely flood control and recreation. Your editor went to Washington in the 1950's and intervened with a plea before the Senate Committee on Rivers & Harbors for an allocation of water for municipal, agricultural, and industrial purposes. Eventually the plans for Millwood were amended to provide an extra one-half level over the area of the reservoir, followed by organization of the Southwest Arkansas Water District.

The result is that completed Millwood guarantees our area a tremendous pool of reserve water supply the year-round. One of the direct benefits it has already produced for us is the division of Champion Paper Co. with its new partner, U.S. Millwood — to build a great paper mill complex near McNab on our side of Little River. The possibilities for our section are unlimited. Not only will a new mill boom the local economy but the fact that there will be two mills opposite each other on Little River means a lift toward the day when irrigation plans for Red River extended north of the present projected terminal at Eveport. The Corps of Engineers could justify navigation beyond Eveport for the present because of lack of potential river traffic. But adding two big paper mills changes the picture for the future.

That's the Millwood story — biggest since the coming of railroad and the settling of open countryside.

Perish in House Fire

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Early Eugene Smith, 3, and Lynn Jean Davis, 1, were killed Monday when fire destroyed a frame house here. Police said the fire apparently started in a cook stove. The boys were the children of Mrs. Lee Andrew Davis of North Little Rock. McClellan to Speak at Dedication

Sen. John L. McClellan, senior U.S. Senator from Arkansas will dedicate Millwood Dam and Reservoir at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 8, in a formal ceremony sponsored by the Southwest Arkansas Water District. The public is invited to attend. The dedication site is on the left abutment of Millwood Dam, located on Little River about two miles northeast of Millwood, Ark. and eight miles east of Ashdown, Ark.

The principal address of the day will be made by Senator McClellan. Lt. Gen. William F. Cassidy, Chief of Engineers, Washington, D. C., will speak briefly. They will be introduced by Federal Judge Oren E. Harris, who will serve as Master of Ceremonies.

George W. Peck, president of the Southwest Arkansas Water District, and Marion H. Crank, chairman of the Dedication committee, said dignitaries invited to attend the dedication ceremony include members of congressional delegations, the governors of Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, and Oklahoma, the governors-elect of Arkansas and Oklahoma, and civic, business, and governmental leaders who have worked for the development of the area.

Another U.S. Plane Shot Down

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Another U.S. plane was shot down over North Viet Nam today, bringing the toll in the last 24 hours of the quickening greatly increased activity by air war to three American aircraft.

The U.S. Command announced that American jets tangled with Communist MIG interceptors Monday for the fourth straight day, but there was no word that any American or Vietnamese planes were downed in the dogfights.

In South Viet Nam, Vietnamese military headquarters announced the mass surrender of 63 Viet Cong guerrillas in the enemy-infested Hon Chong — Twin Sisters — mountain area on the Gulf of Siam near the Cambodian border.

A spokesman said that 2,250 peasants in the area dominated by the Viet Cong also sought the refuge of government and U.S. officials. The U.S. Agency for International Development arranged to send them rice, cooking oil, blankets and other supplies.

U.S. air raids over North Viet Nam once again dominated war developments and the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported only small, scattered ground fighting.

The plane lost today — the 438th reported loss of the war over North Viet Nam — was an Air Force RF4C photo reconnaissance jet downed by ground fire near Dien Bien Phu close to the Laotian border. It was the 11th American plane lost in the north since Friday.

The two fliers aboard were picked up in a rescue operation that required three helicopters which also rescued two of the paramedics sent in to aid the jet pilots.

An Air Force RF101 Voodoo and an F105 Thunderchief were downed during bombing raids on the north Monday, while other American pilots clashed with MIG17s and advanced model MIG21s north and northwest of Hanoi. The pilots of both the downed planes were listed as missing.

Qualified sources in Saigon said because of the greatly increased MIG challenge, U.S. Air Force officers here would probably press Washington to approve bombing of the North Vietnamese airfields where the MIGs are based.

In a related development, Communist China charged that U.S. planes sank six Chinese fishing boats in the Gulf of Tonkin last week, killing 17 Chinese fishermen and wounding 29 others. U.S. officials declined to comment on the charge.
